grade.
Today we'll be talking about what we want to be when we grow up.
Oh!
Ooh!
Pick me!
Yes, Amy?
I want to be a miner like my dad.
That, or a princess.
Wow, um--
Those are two very different jobs.
Yeah, but they both have great hats!

Excuse me, Ms. Baker?
Do I have to sit next to Jemmah?
She bites.
Well...
I suppose you could sit next to Dylan.
pick pick

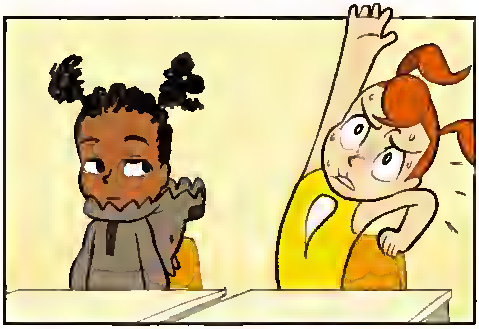
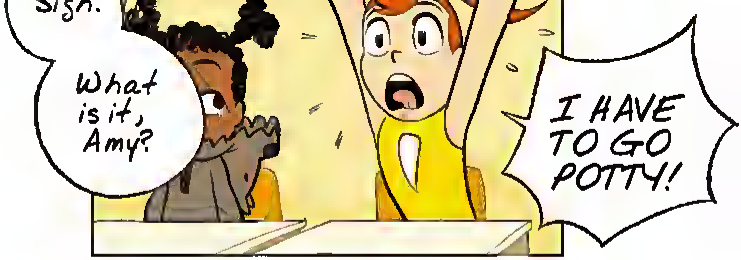
Oh.
No thank you.

Ooh!
Um--

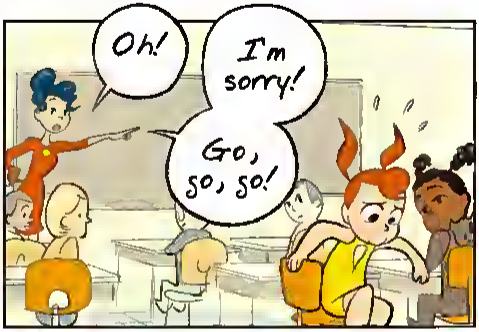
Ms. Baker?
Now, Amy--
Let's give the other kids a chance to talk.
Jemmah, what would you like to be when you grow up?
Um...
What do you call a werewolf that gets bitten by a vampire and a zombie?
I'm not sure...
Maybe a were-zompire?
That.
I want to be that.

Now, as you all can see, the lower case "e" has a loop that...
That...



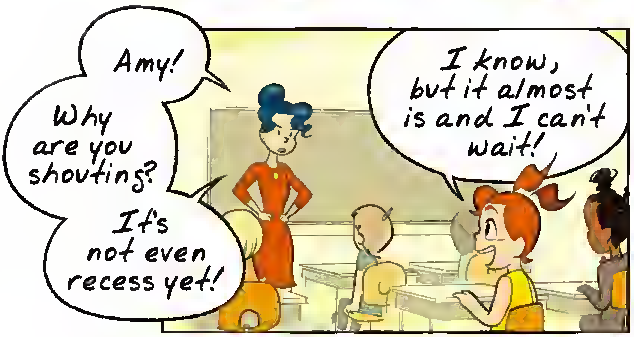


Sigh.
What is it, Amy?
I HAVE TO GO POTTY!



Oh!
I'm sorry!
Go, go, go!

Yay!
Recess!



Amy!
Why are you shouting?
It's not even recess yet!
I know, but it almost is and I can't wait!

You need to practice more self-control and patience.
Perhaps we should have a discussion about it.
RING!

Yay!
Recess!

Come on, Jemmah!
If we don't move fast all the swings will be taken!
Hurry!
Time is of the essence!

Don't fall behind!
No slow pokes!
Um...
I'm not sure if this is the fastest way to get to the swings...
No time for whining, Jemmah!
Chop! Chop!

Dylan!
What are you doing here?
Um...
Swinging?
Looks more like sitting to me!
Why don't you give us a turn?
No, I got here first.
Hey, want to hear me burp the ABC's?
No, gross!
Come on, Jemmah, let's get out of here.
BRAP!
BROP!
UGH!
That boy is so annoying!
BURP!
BRAP!

I hope you enjoyed this run of Lil Amy.
Regular episodes of Space Boy will return next week.
Thanks for reading!

Lins

"I looooooove spaceboy, specially Oliver and Amy, so I decided to draw a fanart ^^ The story is so touching, I wait impatiently every week!"

Oh, wow!
You draw so beautifully.
So much appeal--I wish I could draw clothes and fabrics like that...

Angela

"Um, hi my name is Angela, I'm 12 years old and I really love your art style! I think Amy would look really cute with bows to hold her pigtails!"

Hey, that's a great idea!
Maybe I'll try to do that in the next Lil Amy strip.

Alec

"hello :) I really love your comic and decided to draw some fan art of my favorite character Oliver! I hope you like it :O"

Thanks Alec!
Your favorite character is Oliver--
I wonder who the most popular character in this series is?
What if we did a poll down in the comments?
Upvote your favorite character and we'll see who wins!

Jey

"Honestly, I didn't think to send this to you but my friends mentioned it after I posted this up on instagram. I drew a lil doodle of Amy on the way back from work today."

Aw, I'm glad you did send it to me!
It's delightful-- You have a delicate touch to your drawings.

Christopher

"Yesterday I discovered Space Boy and couldn't stop reading until I'd spent my entire evening catching up on every episode. Your character writing is downright wondrous and the panel layouts enhance the atmosphere really well. Anyway, I can't draw at all so I wrote you a fan poem instead. :)"

Pineapple and Jalapeño

The wind may wing my hair in places as it touches skin to sky

The moon amuses with its gazes watching

through the day and night

The chirps of chicks softly erases any stomach's hue and cry

And blueberry-covered faces smell sweeter than eyes for eyes

But lingering, this aftertaste is a secret truth ... or lie

A flavour aged too long in stasis from a home that's oh god

why

An end unearned is real, don't say this!

No. No hollow by the by

If tongues can taste then nothing changes - still forever; still alive for spending the time to fit these words together so beautifully.
